Dilpreet Kaur Dhaliwal, RN

Email: kaurd7539@gmail.com | Phone: 647-920-3136

Registered Nurse (RN) – Registered with the College of Nurses of Ontario (CNO)

Professional Summary

Hardworking and dedicated Registered Nurse with over 5 years of experience in clinical and healthcare settings. Skilled in patient care, medication administration, ethical decision-making, documentation, and collaborative practice. Committed to providing safe, compassionate, and high-quality care while maintaining professional and regulatory standards.

Work Experience

Clinical Nurse

Dayanand Medical College & Hospital (DMC), Ludhiana, India

April 2018 – October 2023

• Provided direct patient care and administered medications safely

• Advocated for patient rights and upheld ethical standards of practice

• Collaborated with multidisciplinary healthcare teams on care plans

• Assisted in surgical procedures and critical care environments

• Maintained accurate and timely documentation in electronic medical records (EMR)

• Responded effectively to emergencies while prioritizing patient safety

Volunteer Experience

Volunteer

Schlegel Village, Canada

July 2025 – Present

• Support residents with daily activities and comfort care

• Assist healthcare staff while maintaining resident dignity and privacy

• Communicate effectively with residents, families, and care teams

• Follow organizational policies, safety protocols, and confidentiality standards

Education

Bachelor of Science in Nursing (B.Sc. Nursing)

College of Nursing, Adesh University, Punjab, India

October 2013 – September 2017

Skills

• Patient Care & Assessment

• Medication Administration

• Ethical Decision-Making

• Patient Advocacy

• Conflict Resolution

• Emergency Response

• Team Collaboration

• Communication & Interpersonal Skills

• Time Management & Critical Thinking

• Medical Documentation

• Tracheostomy Care

• NG Tube Feeding

• Central Line & PICC Line Care

• Home-Based Patient Care During Illness