

Maithilee Bansal, RN

15 Ridgemount Street, Kitchener, ON

(Phone - 226-899-4635 / Email: maithilee0001a@gmail.com)

Education

Conestoga College, Kitchener, ON

Post Degree Diploma in Enhanced Practice for Internationally Educated Nurses (currently enrolled)-Advanced nursing education including P.I.E C.E.S training, chronic diseases and management, DDD (delirium, dementia & Depression), nursing assessments, care planning,

Gentle persuasive approach (GPA), mental health & addictions, critical inquiry and evidence-

informed decision making

Baba Farid University of Health Sciences and Research (Government Medical College, Patiala)- Punjab, India

B.Sc (Nursing) (2018 – 2022) -4 years of nursing degree assessed equal to Canadian nursing degree as per WES assessment.

Work Experience

GOYAL HOSPITAL, BATHINDA, INDIA

Registered Nurse (JANUARY, 2022-FEBRUARY, 2024)

Description: Assess, plan, implement and evaluate care of residents and make care plan using holistic approach to ensure the provision of quality care. Maintaining accuracy in recording. safe storage of narcotics and other drugs. Supervise and assist RPNs and PSWs in provision of safe and quality care of residents. Have exceptional interpersonal skills to work closely with physicians, other health team members and families regarding the changing health condition of residents. Provide palliative care to the residents. Advanced knowledge of end of life care, symptom management, skin care. Provide advanced wound care on daily basis using advanced wound care assessment tools and dressing material. Strong knowledge of infection prevention and control policies and procedure, experience to work and supervise while home under outbreak, regular communication with public health team. Work under practice standards.

Student Nurse (2018-2022)- Emergency, Ortho, Medicine, psychiatry & Pediatrics units

Description: Provide care to the patients who are critically ill, assessing a patient's condition and planning and implementing patient care plan, acting as patient advocate, communicate effectively with the patient, family members and co-workers in patient care.

-Medication administration, pre and post operative care of ortho patients, cardiac monitoring, repositions, assistance in cast and traction application, wound dressing ,tube feeding and maintenance, tracheostomy care, implementation of isolation measures in case of patients with communicable diseases.

Characteristics and Skills

I consider myself to possess valuable characteristics and skills that will benefit your health organization and your patients/residents, such as my professional clinical skills, quick and accurate working methods, positive attitude, ability to take charge and responsibility in any situation, ability to communicate with multiple types of individuals, and excellent time management.

Accomplishment and Certificates

- CPR with AED, Canadian red cross society
- Sound knowledge of electronic data entry software such as POC.
- Palliative care experience
- Wound care experience
- Registered Nurse license (CNO RN # 24901545
- Fluent in English, Punjabi, and Hindi
- WHMIS certification
- Solid knowledge of Microsoft word, excel, power point